Ten More Shopping Days 'till Christmas--Not a Moment to Be Lost

Some Persons Get More Out of Gift Buying and Gift Giving Than Others

For their presents are all ready fully a week before Christmas, thus leaving the Christmas week itself for home preparations and for enjoying the Christmas sights and crowds, without a thought to distract from that enjoyment.

These wise people are purchasing the handkerchiefs, the center pieces, the cushion covers, etc., to embroider themselves; the ribbon to make the gift things and quietly, pleasurably, unhurriedly, going through their lists.

The Christmas spirit is everywhere.

The handkerchief and art embroidery section are fully equipped to supply your needs.

Chinaland is double in size and resounds with the life and busyness of throngs of shoppers. It is certainly a good place to do your shopping.

Pigalle the New Color in Kid Gloves for Women

There are more gloves in the store than has ever been here before. The section is heavily loaded with them.

In selecting gifts in gloves we suggest that a pair or two of this new shade—Pigalle.

Annual Matinee Dance.

Among the many social affairs that will be given during the holidays will be the annual matinee dance which will take place on Christmas afternoon, at which time the Sigma Gamma Club will have as honor guests the college boys and girls who will be home for the yuletide season.

It promises to be one of the most attractive entertainments of the holidays and will be held from 2:30 to 6 o'clock in the auditorium of the Masonic temple, with Preston B. Gandy and R. Marshall Winfield committee in charge. The Sigma Gamma Club is endeavoring to make this (the fourth dance given) the best of all. The Cadenza orchestra will play a delightful program of music, including all the latest dances and the old-fashioned waltzes.

Invitations will be issued the latter part of the week with the following patronesses:

Mrs. Henry Haymond, Mrs. Virgil L. Highland, Mrs. J. B. Winfield, Mrs. Robert A. Haynes, Mrs. William A. Gaylord, Mrs. James J. Duncan, Mrs. George P. Leatherbury, Mrs. David B. Carper, Mrs. Joseph A. Wetherell, Mrs. P. Maybury Harrison, Mrs. Henry Alexander and Mrs. J. Horner Davis.

Quite a number of out-of-town guests will attend.

Club to Meet.

There will be a meeting of the Marcano Choral Club from 7:30 to 8:30 o'clock Tuesday evening at the Central Christian church, with Mrs. Lee Williams, leader, and Mrs. Homer Williams, pianist.

Social Session.

The Parish Aid Society of Christ Episcopal church will hold a social session from 3 to 5 o'clock Friday afternoon in the parish house. Tea will be served and a Christmas sale of fancy articles, with home made cake and candy will be held. Everyone is cordially invited to go and buy some attractive fancy articles suitable for Christmas gifts and have a cup of tea.

All members of the society are asked to come promptly at 2:45 o'clock to a business meeting held before the sale.

Beautiful Service.

The full vested choir of Christ Episcopal church rendered a beautiful and impressive musical service Sunday evening with the following soloists: Mrs. David B. Carper, Miss Bessie Boggess, P. Maybury Harrison, and Albert W. Rapp. These musical services will be held in the church the first Sunday evening of each month with Mrs. David B. Carper leader. Miss Mildred Lamberd organist and the following vested choir.

DON'T WORRY

If the day looks kinder gloomy, And your chances kinder slim; If the situation's puzzlin' And the prospect awful grim, And perplexities keep pressin' Till hope is almost gone, Just try a "SEALY MATTRESS" To lay your troubles on.

Fumin' never wins a fight, And frettin' never pays; There ain't no good in broodin' In these pessimistic ways. When the kitchen's tippy-turvy, And everything's a fright, A "Greencastle Cabinet" Will keep them out of sight.

There ain't no use in growlin' And grumblin' all the time; When music's ringin' everywhere, And everything's a rhyme; Just keep a smiling cheerfully, If hope is nearly gone, And buy yourself a rocker To set your troubles on.

Christmas time is comin' And money's scarce, we know; So be extremely careful 'Bout the way you spend your dough. Do not spend it foolishly, But buy some useful thing; We know you'll get your money's worth On a "Royal Blue Spring."

The Palace Furniture Company sells cheaper every day;

It's only a matter of time (maybe), 'till we're giving stuff away.

Our Christmas goods are nifty, the style is up-to-date The price within the reach of all, so do not come too late.
